	MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF MILITARY GROUPS' MOTION TO INTERVENE
	-----x

Plaintiffs Obama for America, the Democratic National Committee, and the Ohio Democratic Party (“Plaintiffs”) support the intervention of the 15 military service organizations.

As set forth in their Complaint and Memorandum of Law in Support of the Motion for a Preliminary Injunction, Plaintiffs seek to restore for all voters access to early voting through the Monday before Election Day. Neither the substance of its Equal Protection claim, nor the relief requested, challenges the legislature’s authority to make appropriate accommodation, including early voting during the period in question, for military voters, their spouses or dependents. The question before the Court is whether, in the circumstances of this case, the State of Ohio may arbitrarily and without justification withdraw from all other Ohio eligible voters the same right they previously had to vote the weekend and Monday before Election Day.

Plaintiffs have separately notified counsel to the prospective Intervenors of their support for the pending motion.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ DONALD J. McTIGUE
